DEFINITIONS

Central Headquarters: The administrative offices, divisions, and Department personnel who are directly overseen by the Commissioner, Deputy Commissioners, Assistant Deputy Commissioners and General Counsel.

Commissioner: The Department's Chief Executive Officer.

Criminal Offender Record Information (CORI): CORI is defined as records and data in any communicable form compiled by a criminal justice agency which concern an identifiable individual and relates to the nature or disposition of a criminal charge, an arrest, a pretrial proceeding, other judicial proceeding, sentencing, incarceration, rehabilitation, or release.

Institution: Any facility within which a Massachusetts state-sentenced inmate may be incarcerated, including, but not limited to, a state or county correctional facility, a federal or other state's correctional facility, the Bridgewater State Hospital, and the Massachusetts Treatment Center.

Department of Correction: A Commonwealth agency, under the auspices of the Executive Office of Public Safety and Security, that is charged with the detention of those committed to the custody and control of the Commonwealth.

Division Head: The administrator responsible for the operations of a particular division, e.g., Commissioner, Deputy Commissioners, Assistant Deputy Commissioners, and Directors.

Employee Rule Book: A booklet issued to each Department employee, which contains the basic rules, policies and principles which have been approved by the Commissioner.

Intern: A student of an accredited school of higher education participating in supervised practical training.

Recruitment Department: Department comprised of the Director of Recruitment, Recruitment Manager and Recruitment Specialist, which reports to the Division of Human Resources and whose function is to market, promote and recruit qualified candidates for all security and non-security positions within the Department of Correction. In addition, the Recruitment Department will analyze the requirements of an available position as well as conduct a formal vetting process including applicant screening, assessment, and information interview prior to making a referral to the hiring manager.

Recruitment Manager: A staff person who reports to the Director of Recruitment, and whose duties include, but are not limited to, the management of the Internship Program, works collaboratively with the Director of Recruitment, the Recruitment Specialist and all staff members of both the Division of Human Resources as well as the Office of Diversity & Equal Opportunity (ODEO) to recruit candidates from various sources such as colleges, high schools, and or Community-Based Organizations (CBO) for government employment opportunities. This staff person shall serve as a member of the Commissioner's Diversity Advisory Committee to plan and coordinate the Department of Correction's diversity initiatives and the best methods and procedures to be followed in recruitment programs to obtain a large and diverse group of interested applicants.

Superintendent: The chief administrative officer of a state correctional institution.

Tracks: Any area of discipline, division or unit where an intern is placed for the duration of internship.

226.02

RECRUITMENT OF INTERNS

It is the policy of the Department to provide opportunities for students of accredited schools of higher learning to enhance their learning and experience in the corrections field.

It is the responsibility of the Recruitment Manager in partnership with the Deputy Commissioner, Career and Professional Development to recruit interns from all cultural and socioeconomic segments of the community in accordance with the Department's Diversity Plan. It shall be the responsibility of the Recruitment Department to post available intern openings at colleges and universities in order to solicit interest. All intern vacancies shall be posted on the Department's website.

The Recruitment Department acknowledges that the academic requirements of participating colleges and/or universities may vary. The Recruitment Department shall make every effort to accommodate and recognize these unique educational requirements of each participating college/university for credit hours, supervision and objectives for student interns.

The Commissioner or designee may add or remove tracks based on academic or Department need.

226.03

ADMINISTRATION AND SUPERVISION OF INTERNS AND INTERNSHIP PROGRAMS

The Department's Internship Program offers participants a comprehensive overview of the Department's policies, procedures and practices. Student interns may choose to participate in one of twenty-five (25) or more internship tracks. The following is a list of categories the tracks may fall under:

1. Operational Management Track: The Director of Security or designee at each institution shall supervise interns assigned to his/her/their institution.
2. Female Offender Track: The Classification Manager, Director of Treatment or designee at each institution/division shall supervise interns assigned to his/her/their institution/division.
3. Reentry/Program Services Division Track: The Director of Reentry and Program Services Division or designee at each institution shall supervise interns assigned to the division.
4. Classification Division: The Classification Manager and/or designee at each institution shall supervise interns assigned to the division.
5. Special Needs Population Track:
  - A. Massachusetts Treatment Center: The Director of Classification or the Director of Psychological Services or their designees shall supervise interns assigned to the Massachusetts Treatment Center.
6. Offender Case Management Track: The Director of Classification or designee of each institution shall supervise interns assigned to his/her/their institution.
7. Strategic Research/Planning Track: The Executive Director of Strategic Research and Planning or designee shall supervise interns assigned to the division.
8. Office of Communication and Outreach:
  - A. Public Affairs Office: The Public Affairs Director or designee shall supervise interns assigned to the office.
  - B. Legislative Office: The Legislative Manager or designee shall supervise interns assigned to this office.
9. Legal Division Track: The General Counsel or designee shall supervise interns assigned to the division.
10. Inmate Training and Education Track: The Superintendent of Schools or designee shall supervise interns assigned to their division.
11. Division of Staff Development Track: The Director of Staff Development or designee shall supervise interns assigned to their division.

12. Engineer-Steam Fireman: The Director of Resource Management or Engineering or designee shall supervise interns assigned to the their division.
13. Resource Management Track: The Director of Resource Management or designee shall supervise interns assigned to the division.
14. Policy Development/Compliance Track: The Director of Policy Development and Compliance or designee shall supervise interns assigned to the unit.
15. Inmate Grievance Resolution Track: The Director of Administrative Resolution, Department Grievance Coordinator, or designee shall supervise interns assigned to the division.
16. Diversity & Equal Opportunity Track: Director of Office of Diversity and Equal Opportunity or designee shall supervise interns assigned to the unit.

Learning objectives for participants in the Internship Program are met through the establishment of a structured schedule of activities and related readings. Based on the selected track and established schedule, interns are assigned to observe and work with staff from various disciplines within the different divisions and/or institutions of the Department. At the conclusion of each semester, the intern shall complete an exit survey form (Attachment #2). The intern supervisor shall also complete an evaluation form (Attachment #3) and submit to the Recruitment Department.

The administration and supervision of interns shall be the responsibility of the staff person or designee identified in the respective Internship Track Description section of this policy.

Track length shall vary depending on the requirements of the college/university. Most, if not all, internships shall be the length of the semester or as required by their respective college or university internship programs.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE FOR INTERNSHIP

Any student who would like to participate in an internship with the Department shall:

1. Be eighteen (18) years of age and possess a valid driver's license.
2. Be enrolled in an accredited school of higher learning.

3. Have a related academic background (e.g. major/minor in criminal justice, criminology, psychology, law, social work, business administration or related field).
4. Obtain formal written approval from his/her/their academic advisor, which shall also include the number of required hours and any unique requirements of the school program.
5. Complete an Internship Program Application(Attachment #1).
6. Meet the requirements of a background investigation, which shall include a criminal record check.
7. Successfully complete a Department Orientation Program prior to undertaking his/her/their assignment. At a minimum, the Orientation Program should include instruction in the following: the purpose, goals, policies, and procedures for the Institution/Division and Department; security and contraband regulations; regulations regarding confidentiality (CORI); emergency procedures; key control; appropriate conduct with offenders; employee rules and regulations and an overview of the correctional field. Once an Orientation with the Recruitment Manager or designee has been completed, the student shall then have a site specific training conducted prior to commencement of the internship. If the internship track is located at a institution there should be at least one (1) member of the security staff included in the site specific training.
8. Comply with the Department's rules and regulations (Attachment #5).
9. Sign a release that discharges the Department and its employees from any claims alleging property damage or personal injury or death caused as a result of an inmate act which occurs during the performance of duties associated with internship (Attachment #6).
10. Have adequate transportation to and from the internship assignment.

Internships may be unpaid and may require travel to other correctional institutions or Central Headquarters.

All internship requests and applications shall be submitted to the Recruitment Department to be processed. Upon successful completion of a background and record check by the Recruitment Department, the internship packet shall be forwarded to the Division(s)/Institution(s) internship supervisor. The Superintendent/Division Head or designee shall review the submitted internship application taking into consideration background, experience, qualification and track availability The Superintendent/Division Head or designee shall then conduct an interview with the prospective intern. Upon selection of candidate,(s) all paperwork to include students selected and not selected shall be forwarded to the Recruitment Department within the Division of Human Resources. It shall be the responsibility of the Recruitment Department to maintain a separate file for each intern, containing any and all paperwork, regarding the intern(s).

The Department reserves the right to refuse program participation to any prospective intern based on an unsuccessful background, record check, interview, or inappropriate track request. An internship can be terminated based on any infraction of program expectations or rules (see 226.06).

When the Recruitment Manager or designee denies an application for internship, the intern and his/her/their academic advisor shall be notified, in writing, upon request.

Institutions/Divisions may require other additional application procedures, however, these procedures need to be approved by the Recruitment Department prior to implementation.

INTERNSHIP TRACK DESCRIPTION

Operational Management Track

This track is designed to provide interns with a view of the overall operation of a correctional institution. An emphasis shall be placed on security aspects/initiatives such as tool and key control, urinalysis sampling and testing, internal investigations, institution and offender searches, institutional counts, and intelligence gathering. Internships are available at various security levels.

Female Offender Track

This track is designed to provide interns with direct experience in dealing with the unique and challenging needs of the female offender at MCI-Framingham. The profound differences in culture between male and female institutions shall be explored, and laws and policies guiding placement options, security levels, and programming for sentenced inmates shall be examined. Interns shall become familiar with factors that contribute to incarceration. Under supervision, interns shall learn about required standards of professionalism, and appropriate interactions between staff and inmates as they relate to dealing with female offenders. Interns shall receive knowledge in the areas of classification, parole, programs and treatment options, inmate demographics, substance abuse issues, mental health, medical issues, parenting issues and programs.

Reentry/Program Services Division Track

The Reentry/Program Services track shall provide interns with an overall view of all Department reentry and program services. It shall include program development and the operational aspects of program administration from a central office perspective. Interns shall explore the programs as they take place in the institutional setting and at all security levels. Information on which programs are selected for implementation and how they are developed shall be provided. Interns shall become familiar with volunteer services and religious services. Interns who choose this track shall learn the importance of the mission of this Division by experiencing first hand the steps taken to assist offenders in gaining access to services in the community to ensure successful transition back into society. Interns shall collaborate with county, state, community and faith-based agencies in areas such as employment, medical, mental health care, substance abuse treatment, education, and other transition programming.

Central Classification Division Track

At the Central Classification Division, interns shall become familiar with the Classification process and legal standards as well as the use of an objective point based tool. Some interns may assist in areas such as the County, Federal and Interstate Unit or Date Computation. Finally, interns shall become conversant in the goals of the agency, agency core values, objective classification, reentry initiatives, and how we put the goal of public safety into practice.

Special Population Track

Interns who choose to work at the Massachusetts Treatment Center, shall at no time provide direct services, but shall work observing members of an interdisciplinary team of correctional professionals including classification, record management, forensic evaluation, mental health or sex offender treatment and case management.

At the Massachusetts Treatment Center, interns shall learn procedures relevant to the commitment of sexually dangerous persons through required relevant readings, observation of a Community Access Board meeting, observation of court hearings to determine sexual dangerousness, and consultation with legal professionals. Interns shall become familiar with the classification process by preparing for and observing the institutional classification hearings and transfer boards. Interns are expected to become familiar with all aspects of the Sex Offender Treatment Program by attending relevant training and observing various treatment modalities. They shall be able to familiarize themselves with all aspects of record management including accessibility, dissemination and confidentiality, and to become familiar with the various discharges from Department custody by observing and assisting in a certificate of release, Parole and Court ordered release.

Offender Case Management Track

Interns shall be introduced to the correctional environment and specifically the role, duties and responsibilities of the Correctional Program Officer in the Department. Interns shall gain experience through observation and job shadowing within the various counseling arenas. Interns shall learn about the security, and institutional management at each security level. Interns shall observe the admissions process to include orientation of new offenders to the institution, identification of appropriate programming for the offender and maintenance of inmate six-part folders and other related processes. Under supervision, interns shall observe the classification process by preparing for and observing institutional classification hearings, transfer boards and the risk assessment process. Internships are available at various security levels and at both male and female institutions.

Strategic Research and Planning Track

This track is designed to provide interns with the opportunity to work with a diverse group of staff on research, statistics, and evaluation results. Interns shall ascertain how important this information is and how it is used in the planning, management, and decision-making strategies for effective prison operations, policies, legislation, and services. Primary duties shall be to assist in interpreting research and evaluation to improve public safety and research offenders' abilities to succeed as productive citizens in their communities. This office is also instrumental in the grant writing process for the Department. For those interns who have an interest in this subject area, the research and writing of grant proposals shall provide familiarization of the grant writing of the process.

Office of Communication and Administrative Resolution Track

An intern assigned to the Public Affairs Office shall be exposed to many aspects of corrections and the media. This track shall provide a comprehensive view of the role of public affairs in a criminal justice agency. An understanding of how to maintain positive working relationships by fulfilling information requests, which may be impacted by issues such as CORI Regulations, confidentiality, and other information of a sensitive nature, shall also be addressed. Interns who choose this track shall work to enhance communication of the agencies mission, vision, and core values. This shall be accomplished by assisting in the development of publications, such as newsletters, correspondence, and audiovisual material for dissemination to Department staff, other state agencies, the legislature, the media, and the community at large.

Office of Legislative Affairs

The Legislative Office intern shall learn the legislative process by assisting in the filing of new legislation, tracking all bills that affect the Department, as well as attending the actual hearings. Hands on experience shall be obtained by working directly with the Director of Legislative Affairs on researching and answering all inquiries made to the office by the public, other state agencies, and members of the legislature.

Legal Division Track

The primary mission of the Legal Division is to provide legal representation to Department administrators and employees at all institutions and divisions. Interns receiving approval to participate in this track shall work on assigned tasks from the General Counsel and Legal Division attorneys. The interns' duties may include researching legal issues, drafting and reviewing pleadings for civil litigation, drafting and reviewing legislation, contracts, and working on various legal issues involving such matters as health services, sentencing, workers' compensation claim, discrimination and confidentiality.

Those interns assigned to the Massachusetts Treatment Center, shall also gain experience and knowledge, in the areas of mental health matters, including issues surrounding civil commitment proceedings, forced medication, guardianship hearings, and defense of release positions brought by sex offenders at the Treatment Center.

Resource Management Track

The Division of Resource Management is responsible for the maintenance and operational oversight of the Department's wastewater and power plant facilities. Interns who choose either the wastewater treatment or the power plant track shall learn applicable terminology, safety practices and standard methods/procedure. They shall observe variations in operating conditions and assist in determining long and short-term maintenance needs. Knowledge of applicable laws and regulation codes such as OSHA regulations, EPA standards, SDS, hazardous contamination and the Clean State Initiative shall be utilized as well as the Department's tool and key control. They shall provide assistance in maintenance of required records and reports.

Policy Development and Compliance Track

This track is designed to provide interns the opportunity to understand Department policy development and compliance. Interns shall ascertain the importance of policy development and compliance and how improved and efficient practice within correctional institutions lead to enhanced public safety, safe-working environments for personnel and humane settings for inmate populations. Interns shall have the opportunity to engage in institution inspections and observe operational practice and procedures of all department and county correctional institutions. In doing so, exposure to and familiarization with statutory regulations, Department policy, and National Correctional Standards as issued by the American Correctional Association shall be examined.

Inmate Grievance Resolution Track

This track is designed to provide interns with exposure to the importance of providing inmates an opportunity to resolve legitimate problems in a responsible manner through grievances and informal communication. Interns shall work within the Office of Administrative Resolution and Grievance Office under direct supervision. Interns who choose this track shall have the opportunity to gain firsthand experience and skills in conducting investigations into inmate complaints reviewing policies, collaborating with Department staff, and assessing supporting documentation. Interns shall learn to analyze the legitimacy of inmate complaints in order to determine the appropriate final outcome. Interns shall also learn the importance of utilizing good judgment when dealing with sensitive issues involving the inmate population. An opportunity shall be provided to assist with auditing functions related to the Inmate Grievance Policy, which may include supervised institution site visits. In addition, Interns shall assist with the gathering and reporting of statistical information in order to identify potential trends within the agency. Ultimately Interns shall gain a better understanding of the impact of inmate conflict on the institution climate and how the proactive identification and resolution of individual inmate issues and emerging trends contributes to agency-wide policy development and a safer prison environment for staff and inmates.

Office of Diversity and Equal Opportunity Track

The Office of Diversity and Equal Opportunity is charged with ensuring compliance of the Governor's Executive Order 592 and Executive Order 565. It is our mission to create a workplace that reflects the diversity of the Commonwealth and all its citizens. We ensure that our work environment promotes equal employment opportunity for all. The Intern shall have the opportunity to engage in addressing issues of civil rights, American's with Disabilities Act, and the Affirmative Market Program. In addition, the intern shall have the opportunity to work in various program services addressing issues such as: disability accommodation requests, employee complaints around harassment, retaliation and hostile work environment, mediation, outreach to internal and external stakeholders, training and awareness. The intern shall have exposure to recruitment strategies and processes.

BARRING AND RETRACTION OF APPROVAL OF INTERN PARTICIPATION:

1. A Superintendent, his/her/their designee, or intern supervisor may bar an intern from entrance to the institution or Central Headquarters. A Superintendent, his/her/their designee, or intern supervisor has the right to bar entrance for violation of a rule or regulation of the Department or of a criminal statute; where there is reasonable suspicion that the continued presence of the intern in the institution or Central Headquarters would present a threat to the safety, security or orderly running of the Department. A decision to bar shall require immediate notification, in writing, to the intern, the Recruitment Department designee, the intern supervisor, and the intern's academic advisor.
2. The intern may appeal, in writing, the decision of the Superintendent, his/her/their designee, or intern supervisor. If the Superintendent his/her/their designee, or intern supervisor affirms the decision to bar, the Office of Diversity & Equal Opportunity designee, the intern, his/her/their academic advisor, and the intern supervisor shall be notified, in writing, as soon as possible, of the decision and the reason(s).

3. It is the responsibility of the intern supervisor to ensure that Department-wide notification is made of the barring of or reinstatement of the intern.
4. The Recruitment Manager or his/ her/their designee shall have the authority to remove an intern from the internship program for violation of a rule or regulation of the Department or of a criminal statute; where there is reasonable suspicion (as determined by the Recruitment Manager) that the continued presence of the intern in the institution or Central Headquarters would present a threat to the safety, security or orderly running of the Department. Notification of such shall require immediate notification, in writing, to the intern, the academic advisor, appropriate Superintendent or designee, and the intern supervisor. There shall not be an appeal process for the removal from the internship program.
